Hiljadu devetsto...devedeset prva (19...91) za klavir solo

Podstaknut i veoma inspirisan pozivom naše izvanredne pijanistkinje Nede Hofman Sretenović da komponujem za nju, počeo sam, najpre, da se poigravam njenim imenom. Ono tako očigledno u sebi sadrži dve polovine („da“ i „ne“) koje se istovremeno sukobljavaju, potiru, ali i upotpunjuju. Jednostavno, ne mogu jedna bez druge. Usmeravajući svoje misli dalje, razmišljajući o godinama, koje nekako prirodno dosta dobro pamtim, setio sam se da je 1991. bila godina koja je u prvih šest meseci imala jedno usmerenje (sa nadom, optimizmom, čak sa velikim uspesima naše nacije, pogotovo sportskim), a u drugih šest meseci dijametralno suprotno (tonulo se sve dublje u tragediju). Želeći da suprostavljenju neminovnost u okviru jedne celine predstavim jezikom muzike odlučio sam da realizujem diptih koji će biti celina zasnovana na neminovnoj unutrašnjoj suprotnosti. Takođe, s obzirom da 1991. godina (kao broj) u sebi ima i jasnu unutrašnju refleksiju, nastojao sam da segmente forme kreiram putem elemenata retrogradacije.

Nineteen....ninety one (19...91) for solo piano

Driven and inspired by the request from our incredible pianist Neda Hofman Sretenović to compose for her, I began by doing a word play with her name. The name Neda in its core contains two starkly contrasting halves that at the same time complete one another (in Serbian, the name Neda is made up of the words “ne” and “da”, meaning “no” and “yes”, respectively); one is simply not possible without the other. Next, I directed my thoughts deeper, to specific years and correlated events-something that comes all too naturally to me. They led me to 1991, the year that in its first six months had one course (full of hope, optimism, even grand successes of our nation, especially in sport), just to turn upside down in the second half (sinking deeper and deeper into misery). In a desire to use the language of music to portray an inevitable dichotomy of a whole, I decided to create a musical dyptich that would represent a piece made up of innate opposites. Furthermore, the year 1991 as a number contains a mirror image, a self-reflective quality; this motivated me to utilize elements of retrogradation when composing the form sections.
